

Relocation

The relocation of a division, department, or entire office is a highly complex operation. Each move is different and demands special solutions to unique problems. Elite Team Realty's relocation staff will work at your company's direction in planning the group move. Together, we select the services which are best suited to meeting your employee's requirements and your company's budget.

We provide assistance with:

- Initial planning and development of corporate relocation policies and procedures
- Group presentations for transferees and families at current corporate facility
- Personalized individual counseling sessions at client's facilities
- Video show and seminar presentation
- Group and individual area tours Additional personal services available as requested (hotel reservations, church and day care information, etc.)
- Our experience enables us to anticipate and avoid common problems, provide a smooth transition, and insure maximum success for the move.
